Fish & Chips High Tea

A classic seaside treat is transformed into a real occasion. Beer-battered fish, hand-cut chunky chips served with sea salt fills your bottom tier. Mushy peas and hand carved bread and butter line the second layer. A duo of delicious sweet treats finish off the top layer, all accompanied by a pot of tea and a view of the beautiful North Sea.

Sir's High Tea

One for the boys! This High Tea is a little piece of rugged heaven. There are no dainty sandwiches or scones to be found – instead they are replaced by a selection of savoury treats such as black pudding, caramelised onion and stilton, a stack of chunky chips, onion rings and a mini dish of speciality curry. To satisfy those sweet cravings a duo of treats are sure to impress. Wash all of this down with a bottle of beer of your choice.
